Alex Barrett

Program Manager, Wayfinding
& Connection Solutions

Alex served as the President of PA Pride in its inaugural year, leading the group in the development of its first-ever pride campaign, as well as a series of internal, customer-focused, community, and volunteer events.

LGBTQ Heroes

Brian Levine

Manager, Strategic Analysis and Forecasting

Brian, an active PA Pride member, is responsible for monitoring passenger and industry activity, and forecasting the effects of COVID-19 on travel at our airports, informing the agency's financial and capital capacity.

LGBTQ Heroes

Sarah McKeon

Deputy General Manager,
NJ Airports

Sarah is a true ally to PA Pride – In 2019, she led a welcome event for customers arriving at EWR for World Pride, and marched with PA Pride in the NYC / World Pride March. Sarah and her staff are leading recovery efforts at EWR and TEB, including pilots of innovative technologies for the safety of passengers.

LGBTQ Heroes

Kevin O'Driscoll Manager, Business Solutions

As PA Pride Secretary, Kevin coordinated “Gayviation” in 2018 and 2019 as a partnership between the Aviation Department and PA Pride. Kevin is also responsible for coordinating service resumption activities to ensure the health and safety of both passengers and employees at our airports.

LGBTQ Heroes

Christopher Wolff

General Manager, Talent
Acquisition

Christopher is the current PA Pride President and founding member of the ERG. When COVID-19 hit the NY/NJ region, Chris led the agency's efforts to manage impacts to our workforce, including the establishment of a hotline and policies and procedures to manage absences and safely return employees to work.

Brian Martinez

Astoria, NY

Owner, Fresco's Cantina

We are an LGBT+ owned and operated small business. Before the pandemic we hosted a weekly Drag Brunch, Drag Bingo and more. With everything going on, we decided to help our "Drag Sisters" out and launch Drag-Livery - Helping them make some money during this time as well as bring some entertainment and happiness to our customers. Everyone has loved it!
